

social justice
=
environmental justice

intergenerational, traditional and indigenous knowledge and methodologies intrinsic rights of the dinoflagelates

rights of nature

taino
culture

- Participants:
- Markus Reymann
Director TBA21-Academy
  - Bernard Castillo, Ph.D.
Associate Professor of Chemistry, College of Science and Mathematics, University of the Virgin Islands, UVI
  - Elizabeth Padilla
Manager of Science, Volunteers and Education, Para La Naturaleza
  - Laleta Davis-Mattis, LL.B.
Adjunct Lecturer, International Environmental Law and Caribbean International Environmental Law University Counsel, UVI and Board of Alligator Head Foundation
  - Michael Latz, Ph.D.
Research Biologist Emeritus, Scripps Institution of Oceanography, University of California San Diego
  - Denise Ferreira da Silva, Ph.D.
Professor, Institute for Gender, Race, Sexuality and Social Justice, UBC Vancouver
  - Emma Ranston-Young, Ph.D.
Independent environmental advisor, Jamaica, UVI associate
  - Susanne M Winterling
artist researcher, Professor, NTNU Norway
  - Chazelle Rhoden
PhD Student | Dept. of Anthropology
Columbia University, former intern @AHF

DAY 1 and 2
Markus Reymann: welcome and AHF as collaborative research hub (mov 9376) roundtable with short presentations of the participants and a state of the art data and monitoring presentation of Emma Ranston Young, Michael Latz and Bernard Castillo and their research, Susanne Winterling: planetary sensing, Genesis and Gerry story Art as catalyst, caribbean connections and global responsibilities mov 9377, Laleta Davis Mattis and Susanne Winterling overview and outline of goals and networks lines sofar from rights of nature to decolonising science and citizen science for social justice: establishing a dossier as a workdraft Giving Form is a process of new knowledge second part of DAY 2 short visit and welcome by Dr Dayne Buddo meeting with fisherfolk and Ninja as their representative visit to Falmouth and the cruise ship pier mapping out stakeholders institutions: NEPA

Ministry of Tourism and Culture

what we want to do?
MCU
university agreement
to make this work
fishermen inclusion
traditional knowledge
acknowledgement

biodiversity

First Assembly:
members of the research
network at the site and
visiting AHF

research Hub education ecotourism artisan and art workshops

oysterbay glistening
waters planetary
sensing
arts as a mediation, art
as a catalyst

rights of nature

rights of nature

rights of nature